A REPORT ON DEEPOTSAV 2026 CELEBRATION

New Horizon College of Engineering celebrated Deepotsav 2026 on 6th November 2026 with great enthusiasm, joy and festive spirit. The celebration was organised to mark the auspicious festival of Deepavali, symbolising the victory of light over darkness, good over evil and knowledge over ignorance.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome address, followed by an invocation dance that added a traditional and spiritual touch to the occasion. The ceremonial lighting of the lamp marked the formal inauguration of the celebration, symbolising hope, positivity, wisdom and prosperity.

An insightful address on the significance of Deepavali highlighted the fascinating stories and legends associated with the celebration of the festival across different states of India. The session brought out the diverse cultural traditions, customs and spiritual significance associated with Deepavali, emphasising its universal message of the triumph of good over evil, light over darkness and the importance of spreading happiness, harmony and positivity.

One of the major attractions of the celebration was the Bhajan Jamming session by renowned singers Saaz and Prakhar, which created a vibrant, soulful and devotional atmosphere. Their captivating musical performance beautifully blended traditional devotional music with contemporary expressions, engaging the audience and making the celebration lively, enriching and memorable.

The festivities continued with a spectacular display of firecrackers, adding excitement and cheer to the occasion. Evening snacks were served to the participants, and special snack boxes were distributed to students and staff members as a gesture of festive goodwill and togetherness.

Deepotsav 2026 provided a wonderful platform for the NHCE fraternity to come together and celebrate the spirit of Deepavali. The event reflected the institution's commitment to nurturing cultural values, traditions, unity and a sense of belonging among students and staff.

The celebration concluded on a joyful note, spreading the message of light, happiness, peace and prosperity among the entire New Horizon family.
