

A REPORT ON MOVIECON 2026

On April 17, 2026, the Drama Club, in collaboration with the Art Club, organized a Drama Festival called MovieCon'26. The fest provided a dynamic platform for students to showcase their talents in acting, filmmaking, costume design, painting, storytelling, and analytical thinking. Each event witnessed enthusiastic participation and an equally supportive audience, contributing to the overall success of the fest.

Event Highlights

- Apollo's Vision – Short Movie Making featured short films evaluated on originality, direction, acting, cinematography, and editing, with Mr. Rakshith M P providing insightful feedback to enhance participants' filmmaking abilities.
- Echo – Mono Acting highlighted powerful monologues assessed on acting, expressions, body language, and voice modulation, where Ms. Debirupa Shyam encouraged participants toward artistic growth.
- House of Olympus – Costume Con participants brought characters to life through costumes, dialogue delivery, and stage presence, impressing the judge, Ms. Mohaka R, with their enthusiasm and creativity.
- Medusa's Gaze – Face Painting inspired by Greek mythology, participants created artistic face paintings, judged on creativity, detailing, and thematic interpretation, making it a visually memorable event.
- Labyrinth – Murder Mystery tested participants' teamwork and analytical skills as teams solved case files and identified the culprit within the given time, ensuring an intellectually stimulating experience.
- Scribe of Athena – Scriptwriting (Online Event) provided a platform for participants to explore diverse themes and demonstrate originality and storytelling depth, reflecting strong literary creativity across submissions.

MovieCon'26 was a resounding success, providing a unique platform for students to express their artistic and intellectual abilities. The collaborative efforts of the Drama and Art Clubs ensured smooth execution, leaving both participants and the audience inspired and engaged throughout the event.
