Brief Description	The Business and Information Technology Club had organized an interdepartmental event titled "Pitch Mania" on 21st April 2022. The event was a business-based event in which aspiring entrepreneurs in our college or students with an out of the box idea pitched their business models to a judge panel. Total of 35 participants participated in the first round. Judges selected 6 to the second round out of which one team declared as winner. The event went on successfully with full participation and cooperation of all. .
