

CSI - Coding Contest

In order to enhance the logic building and employability skills of the 6 semester UG students and 4 semester PG students and to make them ready for placements, the CSI student chapter of CSE, ISE and MCA departments combinedly conducted the coding contest. There were totally 3 levels in which first two levels of rounds were conducted by the respective departments. Final round was common for all 3 departments. The student winners awarded cash prize worth Rs.10000.

LEVEL 1 .- Simple and Easy

It was individual performance round for the students. Results of Round -1 are:

CSE – 100 students participated and 24 got selected for second level.

ISE – 65 students participated and 20 got selected for second level.

MCA – 20 students got selected for second level

LEVEL 2 – Little complex

It was team performance round and each team consisted of 2 members. Online coding was conducted for a duration of One and half an hour. For the second round, 4 teams from CSE, 3 teams from MCA, 3 teams from ISE got selected for the final coding contest.

LEVEL 3 – Complex (common to all 3 departments)

In the final round, 4 teams from CSE ,3 teams from ISE and 3 teams from MCA participated for one and half an hour online coding.

Winner for Coding Contest:

The first prize winning team from CSE department won Rs 5000 cash prize.

Second place winning team from CSE department won Rs.3000 cash prize and Third place winning team from MCA department won Rs.2000 cash prize.

Winners name:

1st place : (CSE) RAHUL JAIN (1NH16CS086) VINAY KUMAR JAISWAL (1NH16CS122))

2nd place : (CSE) Deekshith D V (1NH16CS028) Suhas Kamath (1NH16CS754)

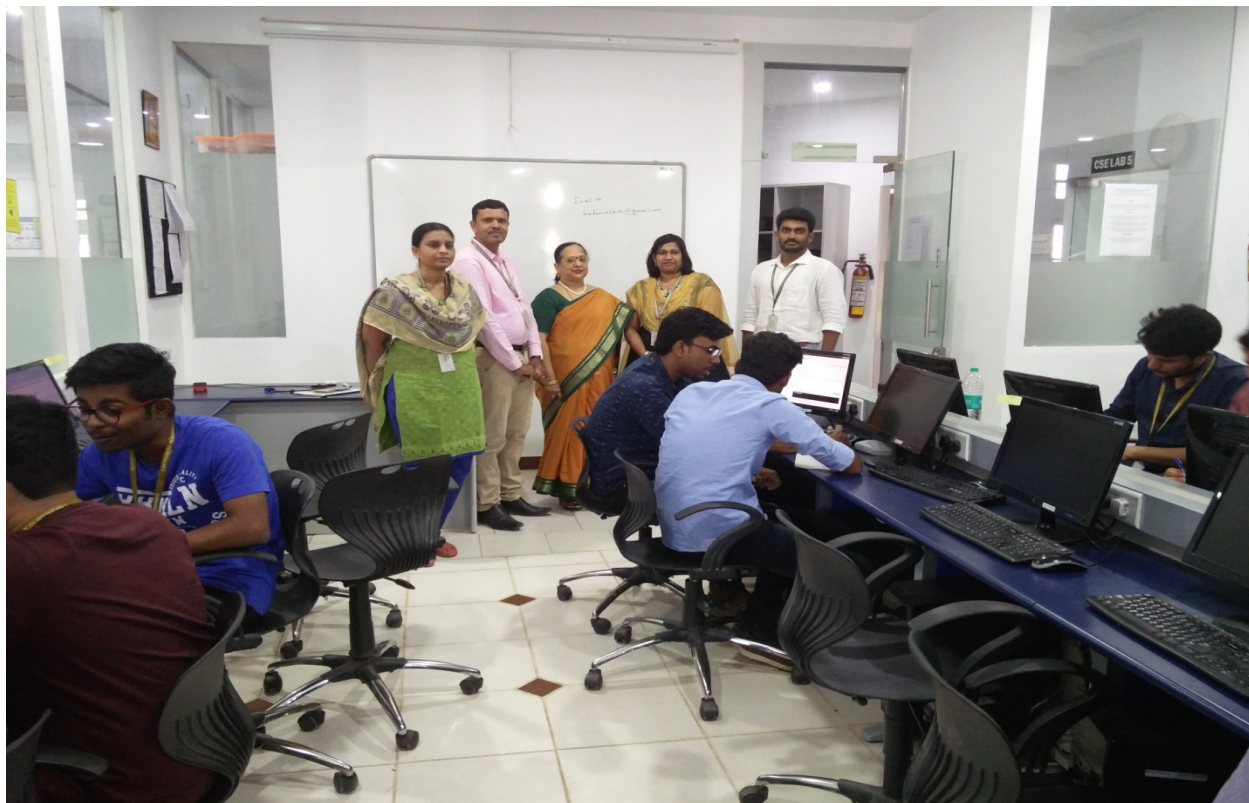

3rd place :(MCA)

Sriraksha(1NH18MCA77)

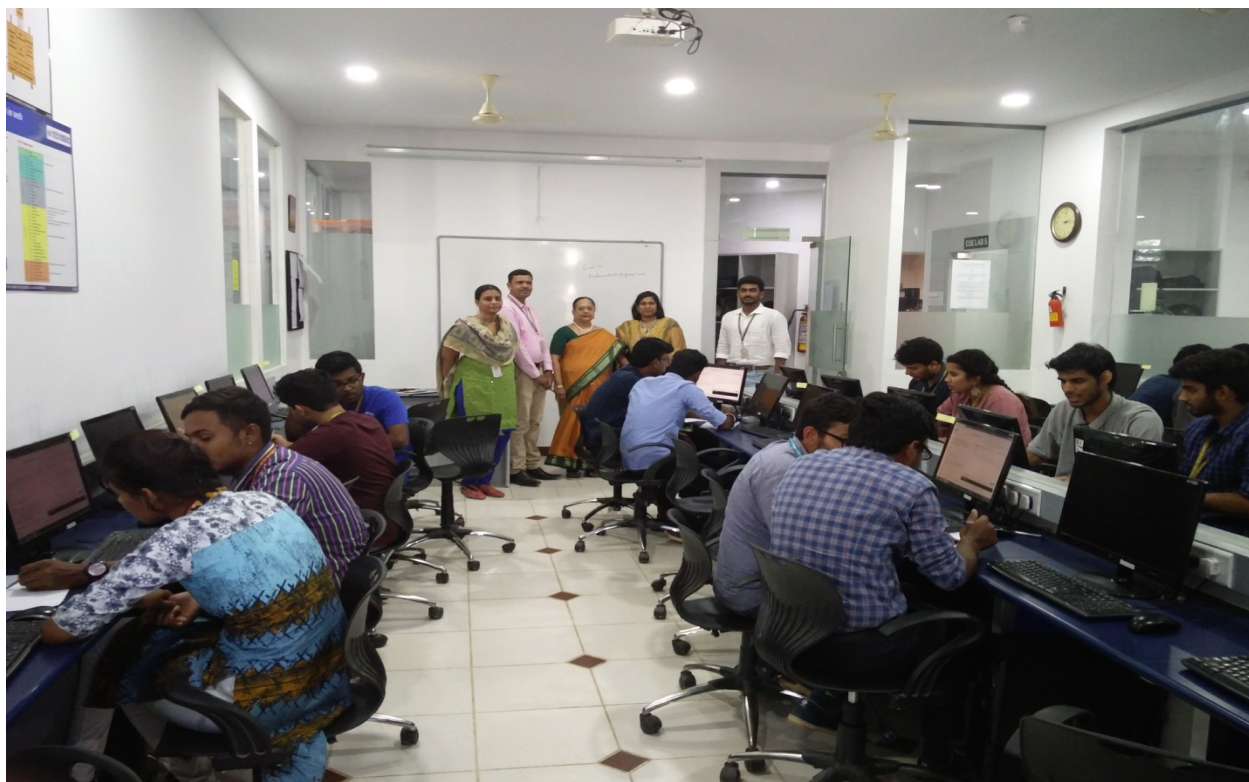

Mohammed Azeez Khan(1NH18MCA66)

Dean academic talk before prize distribution

Round 3 Date:20.02.2019

Round 3