Report on “Hands-on Session on Research Writing”

Date of Conduction : 01st July 2022
Mode of Conduction : Offline
Venue : A308, MBA Dept., NHCE
No of Participants : 15

Quality Assurance and Skill Development Center, New Horizon College of Engineering organized a lecture series on Research Writing to enhance the skills of NHCE-faculty in writing research paper. As a part of the series, an “Hands-on session on Research Writing” is organized in A308, MBA Lecture hall. The speakers were Dr. Rajesh G ASP/ECE and Dr. Ashok K, SAP/ECE, NHCE.

Dr. Rajesh G, overviewed the free reference tools viz., Mendeley reference and Zotero which had helped the faculty to simplify the reference management workflow. Dr. Ashok K conducted a hands-on session on Overleaf, an online LaTeX tool, and participants were made to draft a PPT template using LaTeX beamer.

The lecture started around 2.00 PM and ended by 4.30 PM. About 20 members actively participated in the session and interacted with the speaker, clearing their doubts. The participants found the lecture extremely informative and were invited for a hands-on session.
