Constitution Day Celebration at New Horizon College of Engineering

Date: 26th November 2024

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS Unit Cell)

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit Cell of New Horizon College of Engineering, Bangalore, organized an event on Constitution Day on 26th November 2024 to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. The event aimed to instill awareness about the core values enshrined in the Constitution and promote the principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity among students and staff.

The event began with a welcome address by the NSS Programme Officer, who highlighted the significance of Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Divas, which marks the adoption of the Indian Constitution on 26th November 1949. The Programme Officer emphasized the importance of understanding constitutional principles and integrating them into daily life as responsible citizens.

Oath Ceremony

As a part of the celebration, an NSS volunteer led the gathering in taking the Constitution Day Oath. The pledge reaffirmed the participants' commitment to uphold the constitutional values and their duty to contribute to the nation's development.

Highlight on NSS Vision and Mission

During the event, the NSS Programme Officer elaborated on the vision and mission of the NSS, which focuses on developing a sense of social responsibility, leadership skills, and community engagement among students. The Officer also provided an overview of the ongoing and upcoming NSS activities, which included:

- Community Service Initiatives: Cleanliness drives, tree plantation programs, and health camps.
- Awareness Campaigns: Programs on gender equality, environmental conservation, and digital literacy.
- Skill Development: Workshops and training sessions to enhance employability and personal growth.

The Programme Officer motivated the attendees to actively participate in these activities, emphasizing how the NSS vision aligns with the values of the Constitution to create a socially aware and empowered youth community.

Conclusion

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the efforts of the NSS volunteers, staff members, and participants. The Constitution Day celebration was a meaningful occasion that inspired the students to reflect on their roles as responsible citizens and encouraged them to contribute to the nation's progress through community service and adherence to constitutional principles.
